How To Clean Practically Anything

When something has gotten dirty or stained, you need the right answers – FAST!

- Will water make the stain better or worse?
- Is there any truth to using hairspray for getting out ink?
- Does salt really work on red wine?
- What's the best way to clean up bird droppings off my car while preserving the finish?

You'll find out all these answers and MUCH MORE in your FREE copy of How To Clean Practically Anything.

It's filled with practical advice for cleaning everything from car upholstery to eyeglass lenses to coffee machines and more. The solutions are quick, easy and best of all – they really work! We know, because they've all been tried in Consumer Reports® lab tests over the past 65 years.

So the next time you have a stain, spill or sticky situation – don't worry, help will be as close as your bookshelf!
